

Research analyst fixed income to join the largest in-house independent broker/dealer investment research team, conduct in-depth research, write actionable recommendations that help financial advisors develop & implement investment solutions for their clients. Responsibilities: maintain coverage of mutual funds and separate account managers; assist advisors in constructing individual bond portfolios; assemble and review market bond market data to conduct comprehensive analysis to make effective, educated assessments and buy/sell recommendations; author written research reports and participate in ad hoc projects, interview outside portfolio managers. Interface with management and advisors. Must have 3-5 years of experience in investment research. Position based in San Diego, CA or Boston, MA.

Please submit resume to: tom@usexecutivesearch.com